

GPI POLICY – GUIDE FOR VISITING VESSELS

GENERAL INFORMATION CRUISE SHIPS / TOUR VESSELS & PLEASURE YACHTS ALL VESSELS

- Applications for Cruise Ships / Tour Vessels and Pleasure Yachts to visit the Pitcairn Islands should be made in writing via, email, to the Pitcairn Islands Immigration Officer at immigration@pitcairn.gov.pn - All vessels wishing to land passengers on any of the Pitcairn Islands require permission to do so.
- All fees stated within this document are compulsory.
- All fees within this document are quoted in NZ Dollars.
- The Mayor, who is also the Pitcairn Island Harbourmaster, will ensure all vessels are guided to the best anchorage on the day of arrival.

MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS – CRUISE SHIPS / TOUR VESSELS

There are no diseases endemic to the Pitcairn Islands, however, the small Pitcairn community is vulnerable to diseases that may be carried by visitors. Travellers who are unwell are required to consult their ship's doctor before arriving at Pitcairn.

All Captains and/or ship Doctors are required to declare the health of passengers and crew before landing them at Pitcairn Island. Captains and/or ship Doctors are required to email a copy of the ship's Maritime Declaration of Health to the Pitcairn Island Medical Officer prior to arrival and must confirm that the vessel has no cases of contagious disease onboard.

The Pitcairn Island Medical Officer will communicate with the ship's doctor. When there is doubt about fitness to land on Pitcairn, a brief medical examination may be required, including measurement of body temperature. These precautions may vary according to information from WHO and the Pacific Public Health Surveillance Network. Pitcairn Islands Medical Officer: doctor@pitcairn.gov.pn

Although yellow fever is not a disease risk in the Pitcairn Islands, the Government of Pitcairn Islands requires travellers arriving from countries where yellow fever is present to provide proof of Yellow fever vaccinations. Captains/ship Doctors are responsible for ensuring vaccinations are up to date, including seasonal influenza, chickenpox, polio, Hepatitis A, measles/mumps/rubella (MMR) and diphtheria/pertussis/tetanus (DPT). Other vaccinations may be indicated for travellers with special health risks (ships should check with their doctors).

NOTE: Only the Pitcairn Medical Officer is permitted to request medical supplies etc. from visiting vessels.

MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS – PLEASURE YACHTS

There are no diseases endemic to the Pitcairn Islands, however, the small Pitcairn community is vulnerable to diseases that may be carried by visitors. Captains of all pleasure yachts are required to liaise with the Pitcairn Islands Medical Officer prior to landing passengers. When there is doubt about fitness to land on Pitcairn, a brief medical examination may be required, including measurement of body temperature. These precautions may vary according to information from WHO and the Pacific Public Health Surveillance Network.

GPI POLICY – GUIDE FOR VISITING VESSELS

THE PITCAIRN ISLANDS MARINE PROTECTED AREA (MPA)

In March 2015, the United Kingdom declared the waters of the Pitcairn Islands (Pitcairn, Ducie, Henderson and Oeno) as one of the world's largest Marine Protected Areas, spanning 841,910 square kilometers.

As a condition under the MPA the Government of Pitcairn Islands prohibits all visiting vessels from conducting fishing activities within the Pitcairn Islands Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ). This applies to All Cruise and tour vessels, pleasure yachts and Government of Pitcairn Islands charters.

Whilst cruising within the Pitcairn Islands EEZ, visiting vessels that detect unusual activity are asked to report the vessel name, date, time and GPS location to the Pitcairn Police and Pitcairn's Division Manager of Environmental, Conservation and Natural Resources, email: police@pitcairn.gov.pn; dmnature@pitcairn.gov.pn THE PITCAIRN ISLANDS INTERNATIONAL DARK SKY SANCTUARY

The night skies of all 4 islands in the Pitcairn Islands Group comprise The Pitcairn Islands International Dark Sky Sanctuary, Mata ki te Rangi - Eyes to the Sky, established in March 2019.

To ensure that the pristine night skies of the Pitcairn Islands remain free of light pollution. The Government of Pitcairn Islands (GPI) approved and enacted its Outdoor Lighting Management Regulation, in December 2018 (enacted as Part XII of the Local Government Regulations).

In line with this regulation all Cruise and Tour ships intending to anchor overnight in Pitcairn waters are required to apply for permission to use outdoor lighting beyond that approved under Part XII of the Local Government Regulations (outdoor lighting). Applications should be made in writing via, email, to the Pitcairn Islands Council. Email: isec@pitcairn.gov.pn

All visiting vessels, anchoring overnight in the Pitcairn Islands are asked to keep all on-board outdoor lighting within minimum safety requirements.

REMOVING ITEMS OF HISTORICAL, BOTANICAL & GEOLOGICAL INTEREST FROM ANY OF THE PITCAIRN ISLANDS IS PROHIBITED.

It is an offence to remove or attempt to remove any protected artefact from the Pitcairn Islands, without written consent from the Governor. Any person who does so may be liable to a fine of up to $20,000. Protected artefacts include:

- any relic of the ships “Bounty”, “Cornwallis”, “Arcadia”, or “Bowden”;
- any artefact of the Polynesian people resident on Pitcairn prior to the arrival of the “Bounty”;
- and
- any coffin on Henderson Island.

ISPS Code

Pitcairn Islands is not a signatory to SOLAS and is not subject to the requirements and procedures prescribed by the ISPS Code implemented through chapter XI-2 of SOLAS.

There is limited infrastructure and resource to support vessels calling at Pitcairn Islands. Vessels must maintain their own security when calling at Pitcairn Islands, as prescribed in their Ship Security Plan (SSP).

In order to maintain a continuous register of port calls and to avoid any unnecessary compliance issues with Port

State Control at subsequent ports of call, vessels should follow the guidance provided by the IMO Maritime Safety Committee (Committee) for procedures to be applied during vessel / port interface, when either the vessel or the port do not comply with the requirements of chapter XI-2 of the ISPS Code: see https://www.registeriri.com/wp-content/uploads/MSC_Circ_1111.pdf

In particular, as per paragraph B/9.51 of the ISPS Code, the SSP should provide for the procedures and security measures the vessel should apply when:

- It is at a port of a State which is not a Contracting Government; or
- It is interfacing with a port or port facility which is not required to comply with chapter XI-2 and part A of the ISPS Code.

If the vessel's SSP does not include such provisions, the vessel should attempt to conclude, if possible, a Declaration of Safety, or take actions including:

GPI POLICY – GUIDE FOR VISITING VESSELS

1. Record the actions taken by the Company Security Officer (CSO) and/or Ship Security Officer (SSO) to establish contact with the Port Facility Security Officer (PFSO), and/or any other persons responsible for the security of the port being interfaced;
2. Record the security measures and procedures put in place by the ship, bearing in mind the security level set by the Administration and any other available security-related information; this can include the vessel completing its own Declaration of Security; and
3. Implement and maintain the security measures and procedures set out in the Declaration of Security throughout the duration of the interface.

EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

Pitcairn Island Landing and Residence Ordinance, Section 9.

- (1) Where any person who is landing or has landed in the Islands, whether pursuant to any licence or permit issued under this Ordinance or not, sustains any damage to loss of property or suffers personal injury or death by accident, there shall be no liability in law for compensation or damages arising directly or indirectly out of such damage, loss, injury or death notwithstanding any rule of law or any enactment to the contrary, on the part of the Crown, the Governor, the Island Council or any member or members thereof, or any person by virtue of any statutory function or duty, or any other person acting in any function or capacity as servant, employee, agent or delegate of the Crown, the Governor or the Island Council.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the period of landing in the islands shall be deemed (a) to commence (i) If landing by means of a Pitcairn Boat, at the moment of boarding it from another vessel; or (ii) If landing by other means, at the moment of stepping ashore and (b) to end (i) If departing by means of a Pitcairn boat, at the moment of leaving it to board another vessel; or (ii) If departing by other means, at the moment of leaving the shore.
